Entry-Level Beauty Therapist

Recently qualified beauty therapist with hands-on training from student clinic treatments, including facials, waxing, massage and manicure/pedicure services. Strong hygiene habits and a friendly, professional approach with clients. Looking for a junior role where I can grow my speed and confidence while maintaining high standards.

KEY SKILLS

- Facials: skin analysis, cleansing, exfoliation, mask application, aftercare
- Waxing: underarm, leg, bikini (basic), brow shaping
- Massage: back/neck/shoulders, relaxation massage basics
- Nails: manicure/pedicure, polish application, basic gel knowledge ([if trained])
- Client service: consultations, explaining steps, making clients comfortable
- Hygiene: tool sanitation, clean set-up/pack-down, single-use item control

PRACTICAL EXPERIENCE

Student Clinic Beauty Therapist — [College/Academy], [City]
[Month Year] – [Month Year]

- Completed approximately [X] hours of supervised treatments on clients, including facials, waxing, massage and manicure/pedicure.
- Followed consultation steps (contraindications, allergies, client goals) and recorded treatment notes for assessment and continuity.
- Maintained hygiene routines: disinfected tools/surfaces, prepared clean linen, and disposed of single-use items correctly.
- Practised professional time management by preparing the room and products before each client.

ADDITIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE

[Job title] — [Company], [City]
[Month Year] – [Month Year]

- Delivered customer service in a fast-paced environment (handling queries, maintaining a neat work area, working weekends/peak times).
- Handled cash/POS or bookings ([if true]) and kept communication polite and clear.
