Entry-level bakery assistant applicant with strong hands-on interest in baking and food handling. Used to early mornings and working neatly and fast, with a focus on hygiene, following instructions and helping the team. Looking for an in-store bakery role where I can learn production standards and grow into a baker position.

Free template from cvhub.co.za - build and share your CV for free