Profile

Entry-level worker applying for mining roles, bringing hands-on experience in physical work, strict safety routines and shift reliability from [construction/warehouse/general work]. Comfortable working long hours on my feet, following procedures exactly, and reporting hazards or faults early. Medically fit and ready to complete site induction and learn new tasks under supervision.

Free template from cvhub.co.za - build and share your CV for free